

1.1 How the Web Works

Directions: Write each answer in the text boxes provided.

1. Distinguish between client computers and server computers.
2. What is the purpose of the TCP/IP protocols?
3. A _____ is like an address book for websites.
4. What language protocol do client and server computers use to communicate with each other?
5. List the three main types of files used to make webpages.
6. List three other file types that make up websites.
7. List what happens when you type a web address into your browser.

8. Why are DNS servers needed on the Web?

9. Give one example of an ip address.

10. Give one example of a domain name.